I miss you so much Nana! I'm so blessed to have had the chance to know you . You were always fun and funny and I enjoyed your talks when you came to the house . Even towards the end of your journey you was always in good spirits came down here late night dancing and chillin in here with me . I love you so much like all my other family that's not here anymore! But I know you are for sure with God and I'm glad to have that to think of when I think of you not being here anymore. 😊😭
