Ann, my heart was so saddened to hear of Dear Mother Lela's transitioning. Over the years, you have kept me updated on her wellness and I will miss just asking about her. You have been an awesome caregiver and daughter. I thank God for renewing you each day as you provided the care that only a loving daughter could give. As He kept you during your mother's illness, remember that He is still your strength and refuge, a very present help in the time of need. Just continue to call on His name. May the fond memories that you hold of your mother and your trust in the Lord be of comfort to you and the entire family during this time and the days ahead. Keeping you all close in heart and prayer. Much love, Friend Carol Loveless
