I am very sad to hear the news about Reggie. Reggie, my father, and I trained for a marathon together about 22 years ago. It was, for all of us, our first marathon. Training was hard, but his larger-than-life personality kept us laughing through the hot summer and the endless miles. I will miss him with his big smile and always an encouraging word. I am praying for peace and comfort for his family and all who loved him. RIP my brother, and we will see you again one day.

We are really going to miss Reggie's outgoing personality and smile at the YMCA. I worked with Reggie years ago when he was one of our most dynamic aerobics instructors. I moved away and 20-30 years later, I come back to Chattanooga and I ran into Reggie at the Y after all those years. It was like no time had passed and he was still the same friendly, vivacious person that he always was. We feel blessed to have known him. May your warm memories and God's grace sustain you during this most difficult time. Suzanne Haile-Grueser

When I came to Chattanooga, Reggie was introduced to me through a mutual friend. I'll remember our weekend rendezvous, telling lies while playing cards, and fellowshiping over a good meal. When he and Dewayne came to NYC, they would fit me in their fast moving schedule over a meal. He was a true friend. RIP my brother!

Eric Domineck November 7 at 5:36 AM

Reggie was a friend just like family we grew up at Emmanuel Baptist church we sing on the choir together, heaven has gained another soldier song on my brother take your rest, Bro Eric Domineck and family
