I am grateful and blessed to have met you in the 80's as "Pops" to my sissy Jennifer Blackwell Lansden. You exemplified excellence as a God fearing servant, husband, father, grandfather and more. Mr. Toney was a lovely soul. The entire office at Paramount Podiatry was saddened to hear of his passing but if you have lived a life where everyone around you has only wonderful memories and kind thoughts... you have lived by example and so job well-done sir. Our thoughts are with the family. We will always remember the man in many cars that was always a joy to see.
