I am forever grateful to have been exposed to your loving smile Cousin. It will be most difficult to carry on without it. But I know with all of my heart that your smile has been welcomed and received well in heaven. Sail on brother. I love you and I am forever indebted to the historical footprint you've placed in my life.

This is almost unbearable but within the pain of you not being here, you are no longer in pain. God has you with him and I know you are in His hands. Those hands were the ones that made you and those hands were the ones that welcomed you to your heavenly home. I'm going to miss you doc! Your Cuz, Felicia L. Millsaps
