Harold Calloway

NOV 11, 1945 - JAN 21, 2021

Harold Edward Calloway, Sr. was a long-time faithful servant of Jehovah. He was a resident of Chattanooga, Tennessee died January 21, 2021 at the age of 74. He is preceded in death by his wife of 54 years, Claudia Mae Calloway. They have three children, Tawanna Bumpus, Tracy Calloway and Harold E. Calloway, Jr.; one grandson, Drake Bumpus. Harold has two surviving brothers, William (Margaret) Calloway and Tyrone (Chris) Calloway. He was preceded in death by his parents, William and Mary Bell Calloway. He was loved by a host of nieces and nephews from around the world. Harold was born in Chattanooga, TN on November 11, 1945. Harold worked at Tennessee American Water Company until he retired. On December 17, 1966 he married his high school sweetheart. His love for Jehovah moved him to dedicate his life to Jehovah in February of 1974. He faithfully served Jehovah till the end as a full time Regular Pioneer. Everyone that our father met, found a friend in him, he never, I repeat he never met a stranger. He was kind and loving to all. He would daily talk to people about the promises of God's Kingdom.

Vivienne N. Harris lit a candle in honor of Harold.

We Are Very Sad to Read of the Passing Away of both Claudia and Harold Calloway. They Were both Very Gentle, Kind, Thoughtful & Concern People. Harold Always Made Me Feel Welcome and Appreciated...Whenever I Attended The Meetings @ The Kingdom Hall. His Ability to be Kind and His Thoughtfulness Will be Greatly Missed!!!So Sad and Sorry to Know that You Both Are Gone!!Vivienne' N. Harris and Tommy Colvin
