To George Anthony's loving wife and my dear cousins, There are days when you feel you can't go on, but with God's help...you can. And days when there seems to be no hope...but there is. You may feel alone...but you're not. I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. John 14:18 From your loving cousins, Shirley Hughes Pitner and Sherry Pitner

In loving remembrance of my cousin, George Anthony Evans. You will be greatly missed. I always called you the gentle giant, because you were always so patient with us as kids. You were the first of many cousins that I saw as a little girl. Always at our house on the weekends and after work. Letting us ride on your neck and back as if you were our horse. I can still hear you saying "Tressa get out of that tree" because I loved climbing that old oak tree. Oh, I can't forget my Mary Jane's and Bridge Mix candy you use to bring me. Thanks for good memories,
