Rest well my friend. Mr. Harris and I go way back, he was always the kindest, wisest man I knew. I'll miss talking sports with you and making you one of my "SMOOTH" burritos. You sir, are missed.

I had the opportunity to serve as a mentor to Aaron while he was staying in a halfway house in late 2019 thru early 2020. Aaron completely turned his life around. He knew he messed up when he was younger and was determined to be a strong and faithful Christian. Aaron was a very likable guy with an engaging personality and a kind heart. He was a hard worker and loved his family. It was an honor for me to be his friend. I will missed very much. Roger Loyd Nashville, TN

He broke into your Home, and on his fair well resting page thats what you write . I hope you found it in your heart to forgive the wrongs of others and dont die a bitter oldman and pray people don't come to your resting page and pour out your wrong doing. Lastly I hope he took all the good thing worth something and made sure when you repaying them debts behind it you remember to set your alarm and hope none of his offspring come hit your crib because apparently based off your post you deserved it ! God bless I don't

He broke to my home, stealing what he could, terrifying my family. He was selfish, breaking, mean, and give nothing to the society.
