Shirley, Eric and CaNesha no words can express the heartfelt sorrow at the loss of Danny Ray. He was a kind and giving spirit and he loved his family. He tirelessly worked to make sure all the needs were met at the church and everyone was always taken care of. He loved his wife and children and showed it always. He always persevered and put up the good fight. He will be missed, and love to each of you and all your family, my prayers of comfort and strength for each of you as you go through this transition. Sincerely Sister Cynthia Byrd Thomas & Family
