I met Ashley when I lived next door to her Grandmother, Tracy. She was 14-15 years old. She would come over and sit and talk. She had such dreams and plans for her life. Ashley was so smart, sweet, thoughtful, funny, just a delightful person to be around. Her death shook me to my core and my heart hurts so much for everyone who loved her. Ashley, I pray that I will see you in Heaven and I know your light is shining there. I Love you, kiddo. See you soon. ❤️🙏
