They say it take a Village to raise a child. Jackie was one of the member of our Alton Park Villagers that we knew to be in order with nothing but respect when we were her present or her in our present. She was someone you always remembered and loved whether we seen each other or not. It hurt to see our Mother's gain their Wings. I thank God for all the Mother's I had growing up.

Virginia Hendricks lit a candle in honor of Jacqueline.

To the family: I've been Jackie's neighbor and friend for over 20 years. We've laughed and cried and enjoyed working in the yard. I will miss my friend so much. She was my little Angel watching over me while I worked in the yard late at night. Telling me to "go in the house you've worked enough (lol)!" We love you, Jackie, and treasure all the sweet memories but know that God loved you more! Say hello to Mom for me! We will look out for your loved ones now. Love Virginia, Jr and Gary Cross
