To Kevin's wife and his family, we are so sorry for your loss. We had the privilege of working with Kevin at Launch Logistics and Liberty Land Carriers since June of last year. He came highly recommended by an associate, Geoff Farmer, and to be honest is the only reason we were able to snag him. Someone with Kevin's experience and caliber in the trucking industry is a rarity and it was like hitting a home run for us when he decided to join our team. As the months went on we became bigger and bigger fans. Our company hands out a 'Fleetchief' award around Christmastime which is not only for an MVP quality candidate but someone who is willing to help-out, a pleasure to work with, and is a tremendous ambassador and asset to our team - Kevin was a finalist. We don't consider anybody with less than atleast a year at our company but Kevin was too good to leave out. We were just getting into a rhythm and so excited about what the future held here with Kevin as one of the critical pieces. Matt SR spoke with Kevin through early December and kept in touch with Geoffrey about Kevin's progress throughout. He is one of those cases that we just wouldn't think would be affected. We were devastated to hear the news, and in the short time we got to know Kevin he spoke much of his family and i envied the relationship and the way he spoke about his wife. For as long as they have been married it was awesome to hear someone talk about his bride that way. Our entire office will not forget Kevin. Selfishly I want to say that Kevin was taken from us too soon, but I know God has a plan for everything. Kevin, we will miss you greatly. Thanks for your friendship, hard work, and the bar that you have set so high that others will always strive to reach - ride on driver. R.I.P.

I remember when Kevin would bring his daycare kids to the YMCA to get swimming lessons. The kids were so well mannered, you didn't know they was in the building. Kevin was always giving a little extra, to make sure no one was left out. Truly he will be missed by all. My condolences to his wonderful family. 🙏
