Galatian White, Jr.

SEP 17, 1948 - SEP 5, 2022

Galatian White, Jr., “Big June”, 73, of Chattanooga, departed this earthly life on Monday, September 5, 2022, in a local hospital. He was born to the late Galatian White, Sr. and Bobbie F. Blance then reared by Lourene “Tina” White. At a young age he joined Stanley United Methodist Church where he assisted the Usher Board, United Methodist Men, and in his later years was the custodian. Galatian was a 1967 graduate of Riverside High School where he played football and was in the Duke social club. He was energetic, supportive, and a person that truly enjoyed life as well as a die hard Cleveland Browns Fan. “Big June” was a firefighter for many years, served in the United States Army during Vietnam, and was an AMVETS member. He loved to socialize and worked at Mary’s Lounge doing what he loved more than anything, which is cooking. “Big June” was an excellent cook. Even though he shared all his recipes, no one could quite duplicate that taste; especially his cornbread. Everything he cooked was on point and delicious. Among those who preceded Galatian in death include his aunts, Mamie Dyer, Naomi McIntosh, and Mamie Pearl Lewis; brother-in-law, Steven Johnson; and cousin, David Dyer. Survivors include his loving and caring wife of 15 years, Erica White; daughters, Brandy Gentry, Candice Williams, and Kiara Dunnigan (Alfred); sons, Alric Moore and Xavier Moore; grandchild, Aubrie Preston; mother-in-law, Bonita Johnson, all of Chattanooga; sisters, Dianne “Di” Brown of Detroit, MI, Glynis Franklin, and Ginnell McCauley, both of Chattanooga; brother, Jonny Jones of Rancho Cucamonga, CA; niece, Venita Lawson; great-nieces, Deanna Lawson and Yolanda Lawson; great-nephew, Jacob Lawson, all of Detroit, MI; cousins, Paul “Skipper” McIntosh, III of Chattanooga and Kenneth “Bronie” Dyer; several brothers-in-laws; sisters-in-law; nieces; nephews; cousins; other relatives, special friends, Ricky Jones, AMVETS, the N Holly Street and Arlington Avenue Crews and other friends. “Big June” was loved by all. Dr. Richard Brown will serve as the eulogist.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me When tomorrow starts without me And I'm not here to see If the sun should rise and find your eyes Are filled with tears for me, I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today. While thinking of the many things We didn't get to say I know how much you love me as much as I love you.

And each time you think of me I know you'll miss me too, but when tomorrow starts without me Please try to understand That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand and said my place was ready In Heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind All those I dearly love. But when I walked through Heaven's gate I felt so much at home When God looked down and smiled at me From His great golden throne. He said this is eternity And all I promised you Today your life on earth is past But here it starts anew I promise no tomorrow For today will always last And since each day's the same way There's no longing for the past So, when tomorrow starts without me Don't think we're far apart for every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart. To Diane and the family, our hearts were truly saddened at the passing of Galatian, known to many of us as June. His kind demeanor will remain with us always. May your loving memories and the Holy Spirit bring comfort to you as adjust to his transition from this earthly life to his eternal home. Keeping you all close in heart and prayer. Much love, Carol Loveless

Rev. Thomas Qualls September 15 at 4:12 PM

Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint. Isiah 40:30-31 May God be with you and the family and bless you through Jesus Christ. Rev. Thomas Qualls
