When Tomorrow Starts Without Me
When tomorrow starts without me And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes are filled with tears for me, I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today. While thinking of the many things We didn't get to say I know how much you love me as much as I love you. And each time you think of me I know you'll miss me too, but when tomorrow starts without me Please try to understand That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand and said my place was ready In Heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind All those I dearly love. But when I walked through Heaven's gate I felt so much at home When God looked down and smiled at me From His great golden throne. He said this is eternity and all I promised you Today your life on earth is past but here it starts anew I promise no tomorrow for today will always last and since each day's the same way There's no longing for the past. So, when tomorrow starts without me Don't think we're far apart for every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.

It was an absolute pleasure working with you at OKE. When you didn't return back for this school year, the staff was very saddened. Every morning out of habit, I would wait for you to come through the back door; then I had to remind myself that you wasn't coming back to work. When I was informed about your death, it saddened my heart deeply...because I know God's doesn't make mistakes. I watched you daily work with pain. You never gave up. No more pain Ms.Gladys...no more pain.. take your rest in the Lord ❤️
