She was a sweet person, my cousin always also used to talk to me about what I wanted to be when I grew. When I was a teenager after my mother died she always made sure that I was okay. She was a very special person, she will be missed.

Louise was my family's oldest grandchildren and often times a riding partner with my mom, Joann Knight. I can recall spending time with my cousin in Chatanooga with her children Derek and Angie. We had fun times as children. Cousin Louise you will be truly missed. Rest in Heaven
