In addition to her beautiful smile and infectious laugh, I appreciate how Sister Paris carried out her ministry. She loved the good news about God's Kingdom and she was patient with people. I recall one time taking her with me to visit a young lady whom I was having trouble discerning whether she was simply being kind or if she really was interested in the Bible's message. When I asked Sister Paris for her opinion, she felt confident that the woman appreciated the Bible. And she was right! Not soon afterward a bible study was started.
