Heartbroken!! Vivian, Chris, and Bryce I'm so so sorry to hear about the passing of Jay who was such a Gentle Giant such a great young man. You all have my condolences my heart goes out to you guys, I remember all of you so so well. I'm so lost for words, and I would have been there at the funeral if I had known about this. Vivian I love you, I would love to hear from you but I know it's a difficult time right now just now I'm praying for you, God makes no mistakes but I know Jay was your baby. God has him which makes me feel better, we will see him one day!!

Jaycoy, you were like a brother to me. I remember all the times when Donovan and I would stay over the house with you and Chris and we would play video games all night. Those days could never be replaced. You will always be in my heart and I will never forget you. I love you, may you rest in peace.
