Dahlia Jean Broadway Harland

OCT 9, 1931 - NOV 25, 2023

Dahlia Jean Broadway Harland, 92, of Chattanooga, passed away Saturday, November 25, 2023. She grew up in Chattanooga, TN and attended Elementary School here and Howard High School. Dahlia graduated from Morristown High School and continued to Morristown Junior College at the age of 16. She received a dramatic scholarship to Philander Smith College in Little Rock, AR and later went on to achieve higher education from the prestige institutes of Tuskegee and Tennessee State University. She started teaching in Cartersville, GA at 19 years old and taught at Summer Hill Elementary for 7 years. Dahlia taught at E. 5th Street, Clara Carpenter, and Hill Crest Elementary all in the Hamilton County Public School system for 31 years. She retired from Dalewood Middle School in 1989. She continued work in education by becoming a Reading Interventionist at Red Bank Elementary, helping 2nd & 3rd graders along with Mrs. Belinda Milbrand the educational assistant. She also was a Title I tutor for family and children services. She loved to sing. In her words she believed that “we all understand that learning to read takes time, practice, and patience, so all students can be successful”. Dahlia is preceded in death by her father, Jessie Broadway; mother, Leola Broadway; brother, Edward Roosevelt Bailey; sister, Gladys Bailey LaFavors. Survivors include her son, Darrell (Olivia-Nicole) Harland; grandchildren, Amecia Harland, Joshua Harland, Jordan Casey; sisters, Evelyn Bailey Wisham, France Viola Bailey, Fannie Luis Bailey Knowles, and Hagar Bailey Kingsley. She will lie-in-state on Saturday, December 16, 2023, at 9 a.m. at Taylor Funeral Home. Funeral service will follow at 3:00 p.m. in the chapel with Pastor Ternae T. Jordan, Sr. as the eulogist.

I loved Ms. Harland, my Mom Evelyn White worked with her a East 5th Street and Clara Carpenter Schools, along with their Friend Betty Davis. Ms. Harland and Ms. Davis were my Brownie and Girl Scout Leaders, we learned so much from them. She has always been there for me during the loss of my parents and sister. Dahlia was a light in my world the few times I visited with her many years ago. can still see her infectious smile and the glow on her face. On our phone calls, I heard the lilt in her voice. Just being around her inspired me. My deepest condolences and prayers to her devoted son Darrell, family and friends. Jesus is your Rock, a constant help in times of trouble. With love and comfort, June Harland.

Ms. Harland taught me the importance of being a gentleman when I was in the 6th grade. I am nearly 62 now, but I STILL remember her kindness and infectious smile. What an enviable life lived to make it to 92 years. She will forever be a part of me. Much love, Grayland L. Hilt

Calvin and Katerishia Smith extends our deepest and heartfelt condolences and sympathies to the Family in the home going of Dahlia Jean Broadway Harland. As I reflect back on my childhood, all the fond memories of Darrell and I playing in his room and in the basement, I appreciate his mother, Mrs. Harland (and also Grandma, Mrs. Broadway) tolerating all the noise we made and always told me to come back anytime. We pray God's comfort during your time of bereavement. Calvin and Shia Smith
