My condolences to the family. My memories: Diana and I were babies at our Grandmother's house here in SC together for a a month or two. I was told that I was a month old when she was taken to Chattanooga. I never got to see her again until 2018, which was my first time seeing her as an adult. That was the first and last time I saw her in person. However, we kept in contact thru social media and she audio called me in February. I last communicated with her on March 4 via messenger. I was so sorry to learn about her illness and passing.

I'm selfishly sad she's gone, but she's resting with the Lord now. Oh how I looked forward to seeing her every day bc she would stop what she was doing and pray over me no matter what was going on, I had a prayer warrior friend in her. She always made people laugh even if she was in pain. I loved Ms. Diana so so much and miss her greatly already.

Diana was such an amazing lady. She worked hard and played hard. I first met her at the Baroness and she was a joy to be around. Later, I met her through her mom and she loved church.

Diana recently attended Faith & Finances, a financial literacy workshop that my wife and I facilitate at Orchard Park SDA church in Chattanooga and completed the 6 week course in December of 2023. We met twice a week for 6 weeks. I looked forward to seeing her each session because she was always so friendly and she definitely brought the laughter. Praying for her family that God will comfort you during your time of loss. Looking forward to seeing Diana on the resurrection morning!
