To Edna and the Mack Wiggins Family May God Bless the Wiggins family at this time of transition. Mack and I developed a friendship more than fifty years ago at the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. We both shared a love for Jazz, Mack also played the music as well. Mack was an outstanding fun- loving person who loved his Family dearly. He will be greatly missed. Much Love to the Family. Dell Ray Adams & the Adams Family

Edna and the Wiggins family, you have my deepest sympathy. May God give you peace during this difficult time. I've known Mack for over 50 years and I know he could be difficult, but one thing is irrefutable, he loved his family and friends. I will never forget the laughter and adventures from our time at UT and our memorable chance meeting over the years. May God Bless and keep you. Marilyn Braden-Moon
