Izola W. Acklin

OCT 17, 1932 - JAN 13, 2025

Izola Woods Acklin, 92, formerly of Chattanooga, departed this life to be with our Heavenly Father on Monday, January 13, 2025, at her home in Temple, Georgia. She was born October 17, 1932, in Toney, Alabama. She was the beloved and youngest daughter of Fannie Davis Gaines, and Lee Jefferson Taylor.

Izola only completed the seventh grade due to her family moving multiple times when she was young, but her entire family worked long hours in the cotton fields for little wages. She met her child-hood sweetheart, James Edward Acklin, at age 10, and they started dating when she was 12 years old. She got married on November 30, 1947, at the age of 15, and he was 17 years old. They were married for over 53 years with six children born to this union.

During her early years of marriage, Izola worked for several families. She was a stellar self-taught seamstress who made clothes for her two daughters, dresses for weddings, and so much more. Later on, Izola started full time at Burchay's Furrier Shop where she worked for over 20 years sewing on fur coats. A few years after her retirement from Burchay's, she started working for Dollar General where she worked for 13 years until she was diagnosed with COPD.

In the early 1980's while a member of First Baptist Church of Avondale, Izola was led to Christ by her son-in-law Rev. James Jenkins. After choosing to follow Christ, her relationship with Christ began to grow, and she started teaching Sunday School. From 1995 to 2005, Izola along with her youngest daughter Karen Jenkins and three other ladies started a ministry called Christian Women United where she served as the president for ten years. Under her leadership, many of the ladies that attended the conferences came to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. Through the years she continued to teach and share her faith at churches and conferences.

Soon after, she started two Red Hat Groups called the Sophisticated Ladies of the Red Hat Society and Classy Sassy Diva's. She served as the Queen Mother within those groups for over 20 years. At the age of 92, besides the Lord and her family, Izola loved, loved, loved shopping, which she did faithfully and diligently. She also enjoyed crafting, being on social media like TikTok and Google as well as playing bible games on the phone and texting her family.

In addition to her parents and husband, Izola was preceded in death by her two siblings, Eva and Jesse Davis; son, James Acklin; and daughter, Doris Acklin; grandsons, Stephen Hinton and James Jenkins, Jr.; granddaughter, Lisa Acklin Vinson; and son-in-law, M.T. Hinton.

Those left to cherish her precious memories are her loving sons, Hollis (Sheryl) Acklin of Temple, GA and Larry (Kasandra) Acklin of Chattanooga, TN, daughters, Wannie Hinton of Powder Springs, GA and Karen (James) Jenkins of Temple, GA; one granddaughter she helped raise, Yolanda Shackelford and the many other grandchildren; great-grandchildren; great-great-grandchildren; a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other loving relatives and dear friends all of whom will miss her dearly. She had one special friend to whom she had been friends with for over 70 years, Mrs. Buel Walker. Izola will lie-in-state on Wednesday, January 22, 2025, from 9-10 a.m. at Taylor Funeral Home. She will lie-in-state at 11 a.m. at New Zion Baptist Church. The funeral service will follow at 12 noon with Minister Marcus Hinton as the Eulogist. Burial will be in Forest Hills Cemetery.

My deepest condolences and prayers to the family. My soul is sad... Mama Izola was a beautiful soul. I met her on Saturday December 14 in the Embassy Suites restaurant in Midtown Atlanta. She walked in and sat across the table from me... We spoke and I could hardly take my eyes off of her. My husband saw the same thing I did and whispered in my ear "are you okay? don't cry"... I told him I was fine but that wasn't true. We both saw my mom walk in and sit before us. My eyes started to well up with tears and when she noticed she sweetly asked me "do you have allergies" I responded, in tears, 'no ma'am... you remind me of my mom". We talked about my mom passing and she provided a great deal of comfort. Before departing, she said, let's exchange numbers and keep in touch... we did. She told me the Lord had just blessed her with another daughter; I was blessed to have her, even for such a short time. We last communicated on Friday, 10 January. She wished me a happy snow day and reminisced about the times she had snowball battles with her granddaughter. I hadn't heard from her, and she did not respond to my last text, so I knew something was wrong. My internet search confirmed my fears. I'm sorry I never got the chance to see her again. I'll cherish the short time we had and never forget her. Rest in Paradise Mama I... I love you forever. Your other daughter, Candace ❤️

No tears in heaven
By Alex Lennox
No fears in heaven no tears there too
No old age, for everything is brand new
Eye has not seen nor can the mind conceive
What Jesus has for those that believe
Trust in Him no matter what
With Him Hope, and cast in your lot
No one is the worse off for coming to him
For he is able to forgive all your sin
And when our time here on earth is done
He will welcome and present us to his Son
And there upon the glassy sea
He will embrace you and me
No Tears in heaven, a new song we will sing
When we stand by the throne of Jesus our King
Our life on earth, we will remember no more
And around his throne, God we will adore
With Heartfelt Sympathy

Although I can't be there to say my final farewell to my Aunt Zola, I send my prayers and thoughts to Karen, Wannie, Hollis and Larry. I thank God for the time I got to share with her all her wisdom, kind encouraging words, advice, morning breakfast, evening dinner, her talents making me jewelry and sewing my dress to fit me because it was too big. Aunt Zola I remember one time you told me that you were running and sickness and the devil would have to catch you because you are not going to stop running. Aunt Izola you won the race, you kept the faith, you crossed the finish line and the devil still mad because he didn't catch you. Now receive your golden crown and rest in the Lord. From: Anna
