Margaret Edna Butts was born on December 14, 1930, to Zach and Gertrude Peavy Butts, in Chattanooga, Tennessee. On January 15, 2025, she responded to the call from her heavenly father. In her 94 years, Margaret meant so much to so many, like her daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, Nana, foster-mother, aunt, cousins, friends, mentor, a source of encouragement and most of all, "A Woman of God". She was educated in the Chattanooga School system and was a proud member of Howard High School graduating class of 1949. She was a faithful and beloved member of New Enon Baptist Church. She was employed for several years as a Teacher's Assistant with the Chattanooga City School System and later retired from the State of Tennessee Department of Human Services. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, Ralph D. Brown, Jr., son, Charles Anthony Butts, granddaughter, Margaret E. Butts, II, grandson, Tyrone Butts and 18 of her 19 siblings. She leaves to cherish her memories, sons, V. Lebron Butts and Robert L. Butts, Sr. both of Chattanooga; daughters, Charlotte Renee Butts and Cynthia (Perry, Sr.) Crawford of Chattanooga; Goddaughter, Sharron Sims McClarty of Chattanooga; 11 grandchildren; 20 great-grandchildren; brother, Edell Butts of Valrico, FL; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and family of the heart. She will lie-in-state on Friday, January 31, 2025, at 12:30 p.m. at Taylor Funeral Home. The family will receive friends from 4:00 – 5:00 p.m. on January 31, 2025, in the chapel. Her funeral will be on Saturday, February 1, 2025, at 12 noon at Taylor Funeral Home with Reverend Anthony Bullard as the eulogist. Burial in Greenwood Cemetery.

She was more to me than an aunt. Aunt Margaret was there on the day that I was born and never stopped being a vital part of my life. For every milestone in life, she was there for the highs and the lows-every birthday, every one of my losses-even the recent loss of my son. I will miss our Sunday conversations at 3 o'clock (every week). I was truly special to her as she was to me. Loving you always, Bebe

A Awesome Woman of God that always showed love and compassion and had the best hugs ever. Seeing her walk in church on Sunday morning dressed and looking like the Queen and Woman of God that she was gave me the encouragement to run this race no matter what is ahead of me as a minister she would always encourage me preach God's words only as lead by God and to be the Husband and Father God leads me to be. It's going to be hard not seeing her on Sunday and New Enon will never be the same Rest on Queen Mother Butts untill we meet again Rev. Alvin P. Waites and family
