To my cousin Jennifer: Please know that all who love you share in your loss and grief. But always remember, GOD is too wise to make a mistake. May you gain comfort in knowing that we love you and we will always be here for you in your times of sorrow and needs. GOD will grant you comfort and peace. REMEMBER ME Don't remember me with sadness, Don't remember me with tears, Remember all good times, Shared throughout the years. Now I am contented That my life it was worthwhile, Because I know by loving you That I made you smile. When you are walking down the street And you've got me on your mind, I'm walking in your footsteps Only half a step behind. So please don't be unhappy Just because I'm out of sight, Remembering that I'm with you Every morning, noon and night.

He Is Gone You can shed tears that he is gone, or you can smile because he has lived. You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back. Or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left. Your heart can be empty because you can't see him, or you can be full of the love that you shared. You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday. Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember him and only that he is gone. Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on. You can cry and close your mind, be empty, and turn your back. Or you can do what he would want: smile, open your eyes, love, and go on. David Harkin Your cousins: Van E. & Regina (Patten) Hickman
