Jean and Family, I'm saddened to hear of Joyce passing we met at the old Highland Park Congregation, we were young teenagers, and even then her love for Jehovah was strong. She was the reason that I joined the ministry school. Her joy and enthusiasm was infectious. I hadn't seen her in years but I still cherish my childhood memories of my dear friend. I know her love for Jehovah was strong. I will see my friend again in the new world 🥹🥹❤️ Deborah Johnson

Deepest condolences to Jean Armour's family. Waiting for God's promises when death will be no more. We all find comfort in words found at John 5:28-29 "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection."

We met once and even though she was not in good health at the time all she could think about was something she could share about Jehovah with those who came thru her room. What an amazing woman & sister. We look forward to meeting with her again under better circumstances.

I met Joyce at the kingdom hall a couple of years ago and she was such a delightful person. When she wasn't there anymore I missed her. Went to visit her in the facility and was so glad to see her .She has such a beautiful personality. I will look for her in the new world and get to know her better. Isaiah 26:19 has such a positive ring to it .."your dead will live.My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully...in the new world soon to come!!!

I will miss my big sister Joyce so much, however I am so glad that she is not suffering anymore which gives me a lot of comfort. I look forward to the day when Jehovah God will let his son Jesus Christ fulfill the words at John 5:28-29 " Where all those in the grave will hear his voice and come out" This is the hope that I look forward too and what a wonderful family reunion this will be.
